NetWork2i

NetWork2i™ is the latest advancement of Interel's NetWork1 and NetWork 2. The NW1 and the highly portable NW2, unique and widely used group operated graphic marking devices, have been successfully used for countless individual and team development applications. Now NW2i adds the benefit of almost instant set up. When used for large conferences, participating groups can easily set up and take down the device in addition to using it for learning activities. NetWork2i, developed to provide high impact learning activities that require minimal physical effort, is appropriate for all participants, including those with limited physical abilities. The NW2i is supplied complete with a durable portfolio-style carrying case for maximum portability and storage convenience.

Participant's thinking and behavior styles are immediately demonstrated through use of the NetWork, making it an excellent assessment tool. Activities with NetWork are relatively brief, allowing for accelerated, iterative learning and ample opportunity for developing and practicing leadership and team skills.

NetWork consists of a frame with control strings for guiding a marker, and an area for placing reusable, laminated targets. A variety of targets are provided, allowing for group challenges ranging from the simple to the complex. Network is designed for indoor use with 4 to 8 participants.
